Foreword

Genealogy - "The Recording of Family History." It's done because people are important and deserve to be remembered. It's not important how long they lived, what social status they attained or how much wealth they accumulated. Everyone was loved by someone and made a difference in someone's life. At their passing they were laid to rest by their family, friends and loved ones with much sorrow and they deserve to be remembered.

The following genealogy report on the Daniel G. Defenbaugh family is the result of research done by three brothers, Elden F. Deffenbaugh of Wellington, Kansas; Will M. Deffenbaugh of Birmingham, Alabama; and Daryl L. Deffenbaugh of Lenexa, Kansas. All the sons of Wendell H. Deffenbaugh and Helen F. Heasty Deffenbaugh, former residents of Sumner County, Kansas. We have worked on Dieffenbach/Deffenbaugh genealogy for many years now and have always been partial to those who helped shape the American West, including the Deffebach family cowboys who established the first cattle ranch in the Black Hills of South Dakota in 1876 and now the Defenbaugh family cowboys of Harney County, Oregon, settling there in 1883.

All the information contained herein is a matter of public record and can be found through searching marriage records, birth and death records, probate records, census records, obituaries, cemeteries, oral history and history books. In some cases information will be intentionally left out to protect the privacy of the living. Some may be disappointed because this report is incomplete. It should be understood by the reader that it was our intention to not stray very far from the main work of interest. It could be said that every family historical study will be incomplete to some degree. Every effort has been made to make this report as accurate as possible and to simply record the truth as it happened. Any errors in this report is due to limited or misguided information.

This family report is not simply the work of our own effort but has been accomplished by relying upon the help and hard work of many others, to whom we are very grateful. In our research we are always amazed by all the nice helpful people we have the privilege of meeting along the way. So here we would like to thank all the nice folks we have met who work in courthouses, genealogy societies, libraries and, even, cemeteries. One of these people was Dan Thomkins, who works as Caretaker of the Winnemucca Cemetery, who was right there to help in our effort to locate graves and pointed out some buried without any headstones. Without his help, some family history would still be lost, so we are very grateful for his dedicated and friendly effort in helping us.

We thank Dr. Walter Case, who's mother was Viola Defenbaugh Case, for all his informative e-mails and his supportive spirit. We also thank Mrs. Helen S. Felt of Salem, Oregon for help in finding information on the Defenbaugh family. Helen is closely connected to the Defenbaugh family since her grandmother, Kate Adrian, married Delevan Defenbaugh and she grew up on Trout Creek, near Denio, Oregon. Helen is a noted Defenbaugh family historian and has written books on the family, which are located in the Harney County Library at Burns, Oregon.

But the person to whom we are most grateful to is Karen Nitz, who works as an Archivist in the Claire McGill Luce Western History Room of the Harney County Library in Burns, Oregon. In all the years of doing family research we have never met anyone who has been as helpful as Karen Nitz. For all of her work and effort in finding family information and sending it our way, we are extremely grateful. We have not only found a person who works in helping people, but we feel like we have found a friend as well.

In closing, it is our hope that this report will help the reader to have a more complete understanding of this family and their contribution to society. Life was hard back in the old days. Most everyone started out poor, but everyone had what was needed and never missed what they couldn't afford. A great deal is owed our parents and grandparents. All of those who lived before us. They are gone on to their reward now, but they will not be forgotten. And that is what Genealogy is all about - remembering people, who they were and what they stood for and believed in and tried to live.

Introduction

It has been almost 300 years now since the first Dieffenbach ancestor set foot on American soil. Johann Conrad Dieffenbach, along with his wife, Maria Barbara (Christler), three daughters, and his mother, Anna, immigrated from the Wiesloch/Heidelberg area of Germany and arrived at New York in 1710. Conrad was 51 years of age and his mother was 70 years old. Shortly after their arrival his mother, Anna, died. A son, named Adam, was born in 1711. The family moved to the Schoharie Valley and bought land, only to later learn that the sellers did not have legal right to the land, which belonged to the Indians.

In 1723 the family moved, along with 33 other families, and settled near the Tulpehocken Creek in what is now Marion Township in Berks County, Pennsylvania. Here Conrad and Adam would spend the rest of their lives. Though some of their descendants remained in this area of Pennsylvania, it was not long before many moved West in search of new rich soil where they could settle and raise their families. However, the movement West came with great trials and struggle for survival. Most settlers moved onto unimproved land without the support of family. It was important to have many children to help work the land and help with chores.

This report is about one such family, Daniel G. Defenbaugh, who was a descendant of Adam Dieffenbach, and who chose to move West where he could settle on new land to raise his family.

Daniel G. Defenbaugh was born October 13, 1820 and grew to manhood on a farm in Hocking County, Ohio. He was the second of ten children born to Joseph Defenbaugh and Katherine Goodman. His father, Joseph was born October 8, 1793, at Harrisburg in Dauphin County, Pennsylvania and he died October 27, 1870, near Laurelville in Hocking County, Ohio. His mother, Katherine Goodman, was born May 22, 1798, in Pennsylvania and died March 2, 1878, near Laurelville, Ohio. Joseph and Katherine Defenbaugh are both buried in the Stumpf Cemetery in Pickaway County, Ohio.

Daniel G. Defenbaugh married Elizabeth Doughman February 2, 1847 in Hocking County, Ohio. Elizabeth Doughman was born August 26, 1826, the daughter of Jonathan M.

Doughman. Not long after their marriage, Daniel and Elizabeth Defenbaugh made their first movement West and settled on a farm in East Van Buren Township in Lagrange County, Indiana (See 1850 Census). While living here, their first five children were born: Mariah in 1847; Sylvanus on Sept. 16, 1848; Adam on Aug. 20, 1850; and twins - Jeremiah & Unknown in 1852. Both twins died as infants.

In 1853, shortly after the death of their twins, Daniel and Elizabeth Defenbaugh moved to Livingston County, Illinois and settled on a farm near Streator. While living here they would have seven more children. David was born August 10, 1854; Delevan on August 18, 1856; Louis in 1859; Philander on March 15, 1860; Susan in 1864; Thomas on October 26, 1867; & Daniel W. on January 26, 1870. While living here, their oldest daughter, Mariah, married Henry Fox about 1867 and little more is known about her.

Sometime after the birth of their last child in January of 1870, Daniel and Elizabeth moved from Livingston County, Illinois to Henry Township in Vernon County, Missouri. Here they settled on a farm near the small town of Stotesbury. While the family was living here their daughter, Malinda, age 18, married Alexander P. Duncan on April 26, 1876, at the Old School Baptist Church. Little more is known about Malinda, except she had three children, all born in Missouri, and she died sometime before 1900. About two years later, their second child, Sylvanus D. Defenbaugh, age 29, married Ellen T. Hogan on June 20, 1878. Sadly, they were only married about nine months when Ellen died on March 28, 1879 at the young age of 22 and was buried in the Lawrence Cemetery, 3.5 miles north of Stotesbury.

On May 29, 1881, their son, David, married Adeline Cline at Fort Scott in Bourbon County, Kansas. After their marriage, they settled on a farm near the little town of Hume in Bates County, Missouri, which was only about five miles from his parents. Here David and Adeline had four children: Pearl in 1884; Jesse on September 7, 1887; Nora Leone in February 1890; & Carl Cline on July 17, 1892.

In 1883 four of the sons of Daniel and Elizabeth Defenbaugh decided to move West in search for their own land. Sylvanus, Adam, Delevan and Louis, along with two cousins and the W. C. Byrd family, went by train to Shoshone, Idaho and continued on West to Harney Valley in Oregon by horse & buggy. Here they settled near the little town of Denio and found employment as ranch hands until they could afford to buy their own ranch. Delevan worked for the White Horse Ranch until buying his own ranch on Trout Creek.

The sad news was received by the family that the death of their mother, Elizabeth Defenbaugh, occurred on March 14, 1888, so the family returned to Vernon County, Missouri, where they laid her to rest in the Underwood Cemetery, 3 miles north of Stotesbury. While the family was together, a nice family picture was taken that included the father, Daniel, with nine of his children, six sons & three daughters.

On April 2, 1902 Delevan Defenbaugh married Kate (Adrian) Diner in Denio at the home of R. A. Cushing by the Justice of the Peace. Kate was previously married and had two daughters, Marie and Daisy. Her previous husband had moved to Harney County from Ohio, but found it not to his liking, so he returned to Ohio. Delevan and Kate had five children of their own; Viola June in 1904, married Walter Case; Delevan Frederick on April 26, 1906; George Adam on April 11, 1910; Philip Adrian in 1912; and Warren on June 11, 1912. Since Philip and Warren were both born in 1912 at Winnemucca, Nevada they were probably twins. Nothing else is known about Warren, so he probably died as an infant.

In 1908 Delevan bought the general store in Denio from Charles Peterman and continued its operation until 1928, when he retired to his ranch. He also worked as postmaster at Denio from 1910 until his retirement in 1928. Delevan continued to live on his ranch until his health started to fail and then moved to live with his daughter, Viola June Case, in Winnemucca.

David and Adeline Defenbaugh moved West in 1903 from LaCrosse in Rush County, Kansas, and settled in Denio, where he also took up ranching. Their oldest daughter, Pearl, married Charles Frazier at LaCrosse, Kansas before also moving to the Harney Valley. David and Adeline continued to live in Denio until about 1920, when they moved to Winnemucca to be near their sons. When David died on September 18, 1935, they were living at 332 W. Railroad Street in Winnemucca.

Sylvanus never did remarry after his wife died in 1879 and census records show he lived with his brothers, Adam & Louis, on a ranch. They all worked as stock and hay ranchers.

Philander worked as a Teamster and lived near the little town of McDermitt in Malheur County, Oregon, according to the 1920 census record. He was also single all his life.

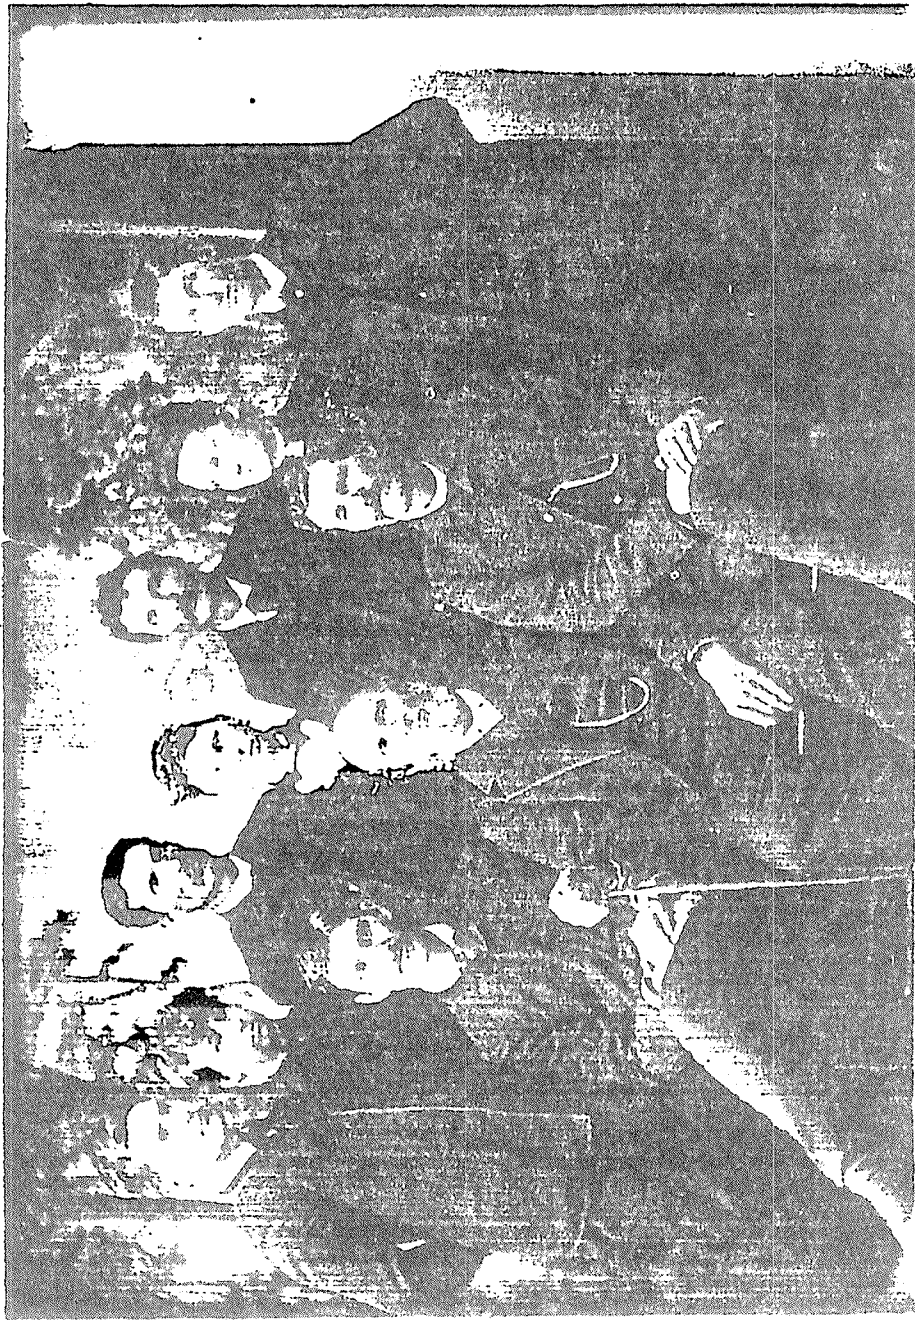

Thomas J. Defenbaugh lived in Winnemucca and worked as a merchant in 1910 and as a miner in 1920. There is no record he ever married.

Daniel W. Defenbaugh, along with his brother-in-law, Alexander P. Duncan and his son, L. A. Duncan, were the proprietors of the White Front Livery Stable, located at First & B Streets in Burns, Oregon. Their business advertisement appeared in the Burns Times-Herald newspaper on January 19, 1900. There is no record that Daniel ever married.

It is not known by this writer if Daniel G. Defenbaugh, the father of this family, ever moved to the Denio, Oregon, area to make it his home. It would appear he was living there because the 1900 census record shows Daniel living in Harney County, Oregon, with his three sons, Adam, Louis & Dell and after he died on June 30, 1907, he was buried in the Denio Cemetery. However, probate records filed at the Vernon County, Missouri Courthouse, dated at Stotesbury, Mo., October 26, 1907, shows an Inventory of his Real and Personal Estate. This Inventory shows Daniel G. Defenbaugh had five $900 notes, totaling $4500 plus interest, secured by Deeds of Trust on his real estate property in Vernon County, Mo. He also had $919.38 cash in the Stotesbury State Bank. Since he apparently still had strong financial holdings, including real estate, in Vernon County, Missouri, leads the writer to believe Daniel G. Defenbaugh still held Vernon County, Missouri as his home, but went to visit his sons in the Denio area often. Since he died on one of these visits, he was buried there, as a matter of convenience.

This fine ranch was later operated by his son, Phillip Defenbaugh and is located about 20 miles Northeast of Denio, Nevada on White Horse Ranch Lane.

Helen (Smith) Felt said Delevan Defenbaugh was almost deaf and progressively became worse as he became older. For this reason he was very dependant upon his wife, Kate, in running the general store business in Denio. She also said Delevan never drank.

When Delevan's health started to fail him he moved from his ranch on Trout Creek to live with his daughter, Mrs. Walter Case, in Winnemucca, Humboldt County, Nevada. When Delevan died on April 17, 1939, his son, Frederick was postmaster at Winnemucca; his son, George, was in charge of his property in Denio; and son, Phillip, was on the Trout Creek Ranch. Her grandmother eventually met Dell Defenbaugh and they married on April 02, 1902. Kate (Adrian) Denier had two children, Marie & Daisy, from her first marriage. Helen Felt said that her mother was Marie Anna Denier Defenbaugh, born Feb. 5, 1896 in Cincinnati, Ohio, & her father was Irwin Edward Smith, born Sept. 27, 1884 in Lathrope, Ca. Her mother, Marie, grew up on Trout Creek until 1908 when Dell Defenbaugh built the store in Denio & it was here that she met her first husband, who was named Bohlander. They returned to Cincinnati, but this young man was not ready to marry. Her mother moved back to Denio, Oregon without the young man. It was here that her mother met her father, Irwin Edward Smith, who was driving a 20-mule team freight delivery to Dell Defenbaugh's store in Denio. They lived on a ranch on Trout Creek and the children attended the old county stone school on Trout Creek.

Dr. Walter Case, son of Viola June (Defenbaugh) Case said that Irwin Smith and Marie Anna (Denier) Smith are both buried in the Denio Cemetery, along with Daisy (Denier) Sherburn & husband, Lloyd Sherburn.

"In coming to Oregon we came as far by train as Winnemucca, Nevada. At Winnemucca we took a four-horse stage into Central Oregon. We spent the winter of 1907 in Denio. Aaron Denio settled there in 1885 and the postoffice was established in the spring of 1897, being named for him. I served as postmaster from October 1907 till April 1908 at Denio. That spring I went to Diamond and went to work for M. Horton, who kept a general merchantile store and was postmaster as well as running the hotel and keeping a saloon. ---- On January 1, 1909, I took a position with the Harney Valley Land and Livestock company. I was foreman of the ranch. At the same time my wife (Pearl) did the cooking for the ranch hands. We put in eight years on the Diamond ranch and I then went to the P ranch, where I served as foreman for two years. In the spring of 1919 I bought a 240 acre irrigated ranch from the Harney Valley Land & Livestock company. In the spring of 1925 I was appointed county roadmaster and served until January 1, 1929, when I became sheriff.

10. JR. WALTER GEORGE¹² CASE (VIOLA JUNE¹¹ DEFENBAUGH, DELEVAN DOUGHMAN¹⁰, DANIEL G.⁹, JOSEPH⁸, JOHANN GEORGE⁷ DIEFFENBACH, JOHANN GEORGE⁶, JOHANN ADAM⁵, JOHANN CONRAD⁴, JOHANN CONRAD³ DIEFFENBACH, MARTIN², MICHAEL¹)⁹⁹ was born January 1926. He married KATHLEEN BETH PETERSON¹⁰⁰. She was born October 09, 1926¹⁰¹, and died January 21, 1990 in Los Angeles, California¹⁰¹.

Notes for JR. WALTER GEORGE CASE:

"I am Walter Case, a cousin of Patsy Defenbaugh (Winnemucca) and Gary Defenbaugh (Fields, Oregon). I grew up on the ranch that Gary and Marj still own and run. My mother was a Defenbaugh and my Grandfather (Delevan Duffman Defenbaugh) owned and ran a mercantile store in Denio, Oregon - now Nevada. When your brother went up to visit Gary and Marg Defenbaugh, he went by the one room school house where I started my first 3 grades with my Aunt Doris (Gary's mother) as my teacher. He can tell you how far out in the "sticks" we were but that area is still the fondest time of my life. At one time, my dad, told me that we were in an area farthest from a railroad, from a paved road, from a telephone -- our transportation was a Model T Ford or a wagon team, Denio was 20 miles away where my grandfather owned and ran the mercantile store. Two of his brothers had oxen and ran a stage line between Denio and Winnemucca, NV. -- a trip that took 5 days with stops every 20 miles just like the old Pony Express days. They took 5 days to reach Winnemucca, one day to get their supplies and 5 days back to Denio. I always thought that was very romantic of the "Old West." I went on from the ranch to finish grade school and high school education in Winnemucca, started College at the University of Nevada in Reno, spent two years in the Army in the medical corps, one of those in the Pacific (Philippines), back to University of Nevada, and Medical School at the University of Southern California and Loma Linda University graduating in 1952. I spent 46 years in General Practice in the small city of San Fernando, CA. and retired in 1998.

My Grandmother, Kate Defenbaugh, had been married before and had two girls with Mr. Deiner - Marie, who married Irwin Smith, and Daisy, who married Lloyd Sherburn. All four of these are buried at the cemetery there in Denio. Kate Deiner married my grandfather, Delevan Duffman Defenbaugh, and had four more children: Viola June, my mother, Delevan Fredrick (Patsy's father), George (I'm not sure of his middle name because he decided that he didn't like it and changed it) (no children), and Phillip Adrian, married Doris Bonney -- two children, James and Gary. At one point in time we all lived there on one of the ranches that Gary (along with his mother, Doris) owns on the big and Little Trout Creeks -- actually they have bought all the ranches along these Creeks. Patsy's father moved to Winnemucca and became the Postmaster there. George stayed in Denio and took over the mercantile store, home and Postmaster job in Denio. Phillip remained on the ranch and kept it, and my parents moved into Winnemucca. At one time my grandfather owned quite a lot of real estate in both Oregon and Winnemucca but the crash in 1929 pretty much wiped him out (except for the properties) -- he couldn't bring himself to ask the farmers in the Denio area to pay their bills and kept "lending" them goods and supplies. Those days were tough, as I remember, but one thing -- we never lacked for food, living on the ranch. We grew everything in the garden, always had meat, had milk cows and could hunt for deer and antelope. Sometimes a steer was worth too much at the market to kill and eat ourselves but there were other foods, like chickens, turkeys, wild ducks and fish in the creek. Fishing is still my favorite relaxation."

Notes for GARY ROSS DEFENBAUGH:

Gary and Marg still ranch the original homestead on Trout Creek, next to the Trout Creek Mountians, located between Fields, OR. and Denio, NV. Gary and his family are professional team ropers. Gary's mother, Doris, owns the ranch just west of them and son, Ross, owns the next ranch west of her on Trout Creek, Whitehorse Ranch Lane.

At one time the children of Gary and Marg attended high school farther from home than any other kids in the lower USA. The school was located about 30 miles southeast of Burns, . The children would stay at a boarding house in Crane, Oregon during the school week and would go home on the week-ends. The home in Crane was about 125 miles from the ranch home. Besides ranching, Gary was on the school board & was a board member of the Harney Electric Co-Op.

Much discussion was indulged on the question of prices of shearing at the recent woolgrower's meeting at The Dalles. The general opinion was that 6 cents per head should be adopted as the uniform price for this season. In view of the fact that the ordinary sheepshearer averages 100 head per day 6 cents is regarded as sufficient compensation, when added to board and lodging. It was generally considered that the present price of the sheep market is not high enough to warrant a higher price for shearing.

L. Defenbaugh Dies at Denio; Here Since 1883

C. B. McConnell brings word from Denio of the death of Louis Defenbaugh, a pioneer Harney county rancher, at his home last Friday. He was buried at Denio on Monday.

Mr. Defenbaugh is one of several brothers who have made the southern part of this county their home since 1883. He was 73 years old and was never married.

He came to this section in company with three brothers and later two other brothers joined them. All located in the Denio section where they have been active in ranching, raising stock and mining.

Mr. Defenbaugh is survived by three brothers, D. D., Jesse and Dan Defenbaugh.

Fire Destroys Unoccupied Barn

An unoccupied barn belonging to John Hogg on lots in the southwestern part of town was completely destroyed by fire Sunday evening. The fire was discovered about 8 o'clock and before the fire engine could reach the scene it was enveloped in flames.

The barn had not been in use for several years and the origin of the fire is not known.

The loss is not great as it was an old building.

Motor Train Service Inaugurated Tu'sday

The first exclusive passenger train on the Oregon & Eastern railroad between Burns and Ontario started regular schedule on Tuesday. One train left Burns that morning for Ontario and another arrived up at 2:10 in the afternoon.

The first motor train brought Division Superintendent E. C. Manson of the Oregon Short Line, who came in company with H. Crane, division master mechanic, and Ernest Lane, road foreman engineer.

An inspection of the new equipment on Tuesday evening disclosed a compact complete train with passenger coach containing two compartments of a seating capacity of some 60 passengers; a second coach for express, baggage and mail is attached to the regular equipment, making the service all that can be desired.

The power unit is built into the front where one employee takes care of the entire operation. A diesel type engine generates the electrical power that drives the train. A conductor and brakeman constitutes the remaining members of the train crew.

The present equipment used will be succeeded by new power motor coach units of a later and more powerful type. The two now in use are 225 horse power while the later models will have 400 horse power with improved interior furnishings.

The new type modern power unit coaches with trailer baggage, mail and express coach that makes up the full train equipment are under construction, Mr. Manson said, and will be put on in 60 days.

The First Old Diamond Hotel

This picture of the old Diamond Hotel was taken in about 1908. Sitting in front are Marion Horton who ran the hotel and also the store and post office; Charlie Frazier, who was sheriff of Harney county for 16 years from 1929-1945 and who worked for Horton at the time; his daughter, who was two years old and who is now Mrs. Leon Thompson of Diamond and Mrs. Frazier. The hotel later was built onto and the rock cellar which can be seen in back, is still there.

The following is a resume of the life of C. W. Frazier, as he told it himself to a reporter after he became sheriff of Harney county.

"In coming to Oregon we came as far by train as Winnemucca, Nev.," said Mr. Frazier. "At Winnemucca, we took a four-horse stage into Central Oregon. We spent the winter of 1907 at Denio, in Harney county. Aaron Denio settled there in 1885 and the postoffice was established in the spring of 1897, being named for him. I served as postmaster from October, 1907 till April, 1908, at Denio. That spring I went to Diamond and went to work for M. Horton, who kept a general merchandise store and was postmaster as well as running the hotel and keeping a saloon. I had to take over all of these duties, as he hired me to take his place. He was gone most of the time from the spring of 1908 till the New Year's day, 1909. Diamond post office takes its name from the Diamond ranch, established by A. H. Roby in early days. On Jan. 1, 1909, I took a position with the Harney Valley Land and Livestock company, of which Bill Hanley was manager. I was foreman of the ranch. At the same time my wife did the cooking for the ranch hands. We put in eight years on the Diamond ranch and I then went to the P ranch, where I served as foreman two years. In the spring of 1919 I bought a 240-acre irrigated ranch from the Harney Valley Land & Livestock Company. In the spring of 1925 I was appointed county roadmaster and served till Jan. 1, 1929, when I became sheriff.

I was married in 1905 at La-Crosse, Kans., to Pearl A. Dafenbaugh. My wife died in the fall of 1921, leaving three daughters, the youngest of whom was only two years old. In October, 1926, I married Mrs. Orah Mace, whose maiden name was Orah Garrett. You probably remember reading in papers of what happened to us when we were returning from the sheriffs' convention at Portland. While traveling between Bend and Burns we ran into a blizzard. We made the last eight miles on foot thru drifted snow, with the thermometer 30 degrees below zero. My wife's feet were so badly frozen that she lost all of the toes on both of her feet.

I was born at Centralia, Ill., May 11, 1881. The first job I ever had was working in a store at Bison, Kansas, when I was 13 years old."

DIAMOND

Diamond post office and Diamond Craters both get their names from the Diamond Ranch which was established in pioneer days by Mace McCoy. This ranch used a diamond shaped brand. Mrs. Dolly Kiger applied the name of the ranch to the community about 1874.

BLITZEN

Blitzen post office was named for the Donner and Blitzen River which flows nearby. The river was named during the Snake war of 1864, when troops under the command of Colonel George B. Currey crossed it during a thunder storm, and gave to it the German name for thunder and lightning.

upon and are expected to be consummated at a meeting of the county court on Wednesday, August 4. The building to become the county veterans' building is a large structure in Fairview addition. It formerly was used by the federal grating service and recently was acquired by the county. Space will be available for several meeting rooms, dining room, kitchen and a hall for larger meetings and dances. All members of the Legion and C. W. W. are urged to attend the Tuesday night meeting. Refreshments will be served.

Don White Due To Show Sunday Against Ontario

A pitchers' duel of high interest to local fans appeared in the offing today as Burns Elks and Ontario prepared for Sunday's game on the Burns field. Don White, 17-year-old Portland high school southpaw and coast league prospect, is due to make his first local appearance for the Burns Elks.

Billed to face him is Leo Henderson, star hurler of the Ontario team.

That Burns had acquired a league prospect was indicated by J. H. Gregory in his Greg's Gossip column in Tuesday's Oregonian.

Talk in the high school league is that Don White, recently graduated Washington high southpaw with the strike-out curve, is ticketed for the San Francisco Seals through that club's very active scout, Carl Mays. However, by "gentleman's agreement," leaving his varsity eligibility and amateur standing intact, rather than actually through signing a contract. The same talk has White entering University of Oregon in the fall with the laudable intention of laying at least a two-year foundation to a college education for himself before he joins the Seals.

The past week White has been on loan to the Payette club in the Idaho state baseball tournament. Friday night he pitched Payette to a 15-0 win over Burley in a game witnessed by Joe Hendricks and C. N. Young. Because of the top-sided score the game was called at the end of the sixth inning. By that time White had 18 strikeouts, had allowed but one hit, a scratch single to third.

In the finals Monday, Payette lost to Nampa, White went in for the final two innings and pitched hitless ball.

Ontario Golfers Play Burns-Hines

A group of golf players from Ontario contested local men and women on the Valley Golf course here last Sunday with Ontario players taking the contest with a score of 35 to 19.

Among the visitors who are well known in this community were Judge M. A. Biggs, John Caldwell, Jr., and Ted Bryan. Dr. John Easly was also a member of the Ontario team.

The group were guests at a luncheon at the club house at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Yturri also stopped by on their way to California points, as it was possible Mr. Yturri would be needed to complete the Ontario team. However, it was not necessary and the Yturris continued on their way after luncheon. Mrs. Biggs accompanied her husband over for

Rites Today Will Honor C. W. Frazier

Charles W. Frazier, 67, sheriff here from 1927 to 1942 and generally considered the most widely known man among Harney county people, is home in death today for a county-wide tribute scheduled at funeral rites to be held at 2:30 this afternoon. Services will be from the Olsen Funeral Home with the Rev. Arthur Beckwith officiating.

End of a long illness for the 16-year sheriff and popular western figure came Monday at his Newberg home, where he had resided in retirement for the past three years in the hope of benefiting his health.

Charles William Frazier was born May 11, 1881, at Centralia, Ill. In 1906 he took Pearl A. Deffenbaugh as his bride at La Crosse, Kansas.

To this union was born three daughters: Mrs. Leon Thompson of Diamond, Mrs. Archie Weinstein of Eugene and Mrs. Donald Aman of Mt. Angel. Also surviving are two brothers, a sister and six grandchildren, two each in the families of his three daughters.

Coming to Harney county forty years ago, Mr. Frazier had his first employment as a post office assistant to Del Deffenbaugh, his wife's uncle, an early Harney pioneer.

Later he moved to Diamond for employment with Marion Horton in the Diamond store, then became ranch foreman for the Pacific Live Stock Company, on the Diamond and P. ranches. After 10 years in this capacity, he bought his own ranch at Diamond, living there from 1919 until after the death of his wife in 1921.

Mr. Frazier and his daughters moved to Crane for a short residence and he became Harney county road master in 1924-25.

On October 2, 1926, Mr. Frazier wedded the former Ora Mace of Burns and established the family's long time residence in Burns.

Sheriff Frazier was first elected to office in 1928 as the candidate of the Democratic party. He was reelected in 1930, 1934 and 1938. In addition to his services in Harney county, Sheriff Frazier took a prominent part in the activities of the Oregon association of county sheriffs, of which he was a past state president.

Mrs. Frazier arrived here Wednesday morning to make funeral arrangements. Accompanying her was Mrs. Arthur Turner of Burns, who was in Newberg at the time of Mr. Frazier's death.

Among relatives of the former sheriff here for the funeral services are Mr. and Mrs. Leon Thompson of Diamond, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Weinstein of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Aman of Mt. Angel, sons-in-law and daughters: Mrs. Florence Frazier, sister-in-law, Hamilton, Mont.; Mrs. William Potts, Los Angeles, sister; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Frazier, Blount, Kan.; and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Frazier, Carson City, Nev., brothers and sisters-in-law; Mrs. Chloe Barber of Kansas, a niece, and Jake Gilmour, Nelson Gilmour and Mrs. Nellie Strait, all of Jefferson, Oregon, cousins.

C. J. Shorb Here Campaigning

Making a hurried trip over, a portion of the district, C. J. Shorb, Democratic nominee for congressman from the second district, was here Wednesday to confer with voters and renew acquaintances.

Mr. Shorb lives in La Grande where he is conducting an office supply business and is also the owner of the Eastern Oregon Review, a weekly paper. However, he is not actively associated with its publication, it being under lease at the present.

Mr. Shorb was cordially received by those with whom he talked during his short stop in Burns, and announced on his departure he would be back for a more extended visit later in the campaign.

Girl Scouts Theimer Park Camp Dates Set

A Girl Scout "established camp" has been authorized for the Girl Scouts of Burns and Hines and will be held at Theimer Park August 7, 8, 9, and 10, according to announcement of Mrs. Ralph Reed, she will be camp director.

This is the first established camp for the Girl Scouts in this community. Heretofore outdoor activities have been limited to hikes or outings.

Plans for the established camp were outlined during a visit of Mrs. Katherine of Girl Scout National from the Seattle headquarters.

A complete established camp program will be carried out with new crafts, star walk, and regular scout activities. Twenty-six girls have registered for the four-day event and Mrs. Reed is hopeful the camp will reach its full capacity of thirty-five.

In addition to Mrs. Reed, others who will attend as councilors are Mrs. Truxton Dalton, who will also act as camp cook; Mrs. Virgil Starr, Mrs. Charles Clark and Mrs. Elmer Graves of Hines.

Mrs. Mori Ose is also taking an active part in camp preparations and is assisting the aid of business men in cleaning and making the camp ready.

Korhonen Severs Connection With U. S. National

B. M. Korhonen, who has held the position of assistant manager of the Harney County Branch of the United States National bank for five years, has resigned, effective August 1. His successor has not yet been announced.

Mr. Korhonen had begun with the United States National organization for over 25 years. His decision to resign was prompted by a desire to retire from the banking business and engage in some other activity, he said. He has no immediate plans for the future as he wants to spend a leisurely time prior to assuming any obligations. He and Mrs. Korhonen expect to leave early next week for Spokane, where they will be located for the present.

During their residence in Burns Mr. and Mrs. Korhonen have made warm friendships and Mr. Korhonen's participation in the business and civic life of the community has won him the confidence and admiration of his associates.

In Winnemucca

By Eunice Jordan

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Miller, Jr., of Drewsey, announce the marriage of their daughter, Marjorie Louise, to Gary Defenbaugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Defenbaugh, of Andrews. The young couple was united in marriage on Oct. 27 at the Community Methodist Church in Winnemucca, Nev., with Reverend Salbergstein officiating. The bride wore a teal blue suit dress with brown accessories and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Alfred Dunten, sister of the bride, was her matron of honor. Alfred Dunten was best man for the bridegroom. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

A miscellaneous wedding shower for Mr. and Mrs. Ron Shelley (Donna Moser) preceded a charivari dance for the young couple at the Drewsey grange hall Nov. 10th. Many lovely and useful gifts were received. Hostesses for the shower were Burnice Baker, Zeta Miller, Margaret Riley, Norma Miller and Carol Dunten. Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Shelley, parents of the bridegroom, sponsored the charivari dance. Music was gladly furnished by local friends. A large crowd was present and a very enjoyable evening was had by the "well-wishers" of the bride and bridegroom, who are now at their new home, the former Chapman ranch near Riverside.

Mr. and Mrs. Wakefield and her brother, Bill Driscoll, of Salem, have been guests this past week of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Williams. While here, the men-folks and Mr. Williams and son, Terry, went elk hunting in the Van Mountain area.

Larry and Bob Ward recently visited their aunt, Mrs. Ida Howard. Larry was home on furlough from the Air Force but Bob, having completed his service training, is now at home with his father, Herb Ward, at Juntura.

Bill Robertson and Tom Joyce spent a few days this week at the Cow Camp riding for cattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Defenbaugh spent last weekend at the Miller home. This weekend they were here and attended the charivari dance and show-er for Mr. and Mrs. Ron Shelley.

Mrs. Arkley McCumber, of Juntura, was in Drewsey on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Forsea, of Richland, were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Jordan Tuesday. The Forseas were en-route to Lakeview to attend the Stockmen's convention.

This community is pleased and proud to have as local citizens the president of the Harney County Stockmen's Association, Jim Gardner; president of the Harney County CowBelles, Anna Grace Edmuns-son and secretary-treasurer of Harney County CowBelles, Nancy Williams.

Several Drewsey people went to Vale Saturday to see the football game between Burns and Vale.

Jim Gardner, president of Harney County Stockgrowers Association, attended the state convention last week at Lakeview.

There was no mail service for Juntura-Drewsey and Drewsey-Van patrons on Monday due to Veterans' Day.

Brothers of Jim Gardner, Punch, of Roseburg, and Buck, of Canby, were at the Otis Valley ranch to help Jim with his cattle last weekend. Mrs. Jim Gardner and the girls were over from the new home at Tumalo. They returned Monday afternoon so the girls would be back for school Tuesday morning.
